Leadership:

The Library Leadership and Management Association, LLAMA, is a division of the American Library Association. It is a member organization that supports the development of library leaders and management. The organization offers webinars, publications, awards, and conference presentations. Subsections include Buildings and Equipment Section (BES), the Fund Raising and Financial Development Section (FRFDS), the Human Resources Section (HRS), the Library Organization and Management Section (LOMS), the Measurement, Assessment and Evaluation Section (MAES), New Professionals Section (NPS), the Public Relations and Marketing Section (PRMS), and the Systems and Services Section (SASS). http://www.ala.org/llama/

Public Library Leadership Fellows Program (PuLL)
An IMLS-funded program at the University of Missouri
A three year grant-funded program that will educate 8 students per year to become leaders in Missouri's Public Libraries. Each student will take 12 credit hours in topics including finance, community relations, working with boards, diversity, and human resources. http://libraryleaders.missouri.edu/

ALA Resource list on Leadership Training
A resource list of library leadership training available throughout the United States. It is maintained by the ALA Office for Human Resource Development and Recruitment (HRDR) on behalf of the ALA Training, Orientation and Leadership Development (TOLD) Committee. http://www.ala.org/offices/hrdr/abouthrdr/hrdrliaisoncomm/told/leadershiptraining

ALA Emerging Leaders Program
http://www.ala.org/educationcareers/leadership/emergingleaders
A leadership development program for newer library professionals to work on problem solving in groups, network, learn about ALA, and may have opportunities to participate in the organization’s leadership. Cohorts begin at ALA Midwinter, work and network online for 6 months, and culminates at ALA Annual.

PLA Leadership Academy: Navigating Change • Building Community
March 20–24, 2017
Portland, Ore.
In in-person 3.5 days of immersive leadership training for public librarians sponsored by the Public Library Association developed in partnership with the International City and County Management Association (ICMA) and Adam Goodman, director of the Center for Leadership, Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., with support from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. http://www.ala.org/pla/education/leadershipacademy

Certified Public Library Administrator® Program
A post MLIS certification program for public librarians with a minimum of 3 years of experience. The program requires 7 courses—4 core courses and 3 electives-- to gain experience to improve opportunities for administrative advancement sponsored by ALA/APA. http://ala-apa.org/certification/

Articles

Brey-Casiano, Carol A. "Leadership qualities for future library leaders: Carol's 10 steps to being a great library leader.” Thinking outside the borders: library leadership in a world community: a manual for professional development.